DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

Ph.D. Program, M.S. Program, M.A.T. Program

Annual Stipends starting FALL 2021: $27,000 for PhDs, $10,000 for Masters
Applications will be evaluated starting January 1, 2023

Award-winning teachers, faculty expertise in a wide range of research areas, and abundant opportunities for one-on-one student and faculty collaboration distinguish our program.

Mathematics Department Graduate Faculty

José Carrión	Ph. D., Purdue University. Operator Algebras, K-theory
Ze-Li Dou	Ph.D., Princeton University. Number Theory
Greg Friedman	Chair, Ph.D., New York University. Algebraic and Geometric Topology
George T. Gilbert	Ph.D., Harvard University. Discrete and Applied Mathematics, Number Theory
Rhonda L. Hatcher	Ph.D., Harvard University. Number Theory
Emily Herzig	Ph.D., University of Texas at Dallas. Linear Algebra
Dennis Ledis	Ph.D., University of Florida. Dynamical Systems
Scott Nollet	Ph.D., University of California, Berkeley. Algebraic Geometry
Efton Park	Ph.D., Stony Brook University. K-Theory, Operator Algebras
Nelis Potgieter	Ph.D., University of Johannesburg, Nonparametric Statistics and Measurement Error Modeling
Igor Prokhorenkov	Ph.D., Rice University. Differential Geometry and Global Analysis
Ken Richardson	Ph.D., Rice University. Differential Geometry and Global Analysis
Loren Spice	Ph.D., University of Chicago. Harmonic Analysis and Representations of p-adic Groups
Susan G. Staples	Ph.D., University of Michigan. Real and Complex Analysis
Derek Tomlin	Ph.D., University of Texas at Arlington, Noncommutative Algebra and Algebraic Geometry
Drew Tomlin	Ph.D., University of North Texas. Algebra
Fred Xavier	Ph.D., University of Rochester. Differential Geometry
Qiao Zhang	Ph.D., Columbia University. Analytic Number Theory and Arithmetic Geometry
